Medical assistance service overview

Out-patient appointment booking service in Hong Kong, Macau and Mainland China

If you are seeking a medical consultation in Hong Kong, Macau or Mainland China, you can simply call the China Life (Overseas) medical assistance service hotline and make an outpatient appointment.

Hospitalization direct billing service (cashless hospitalization service)

You can enjoy this service in Hong Kong, Macau, Mainland China and worldwide simply by completing a pre-approval procedure prior to hospital admission. We will settle your eligible medical expenses directly with the hospital (subject to the terms and benefit limit of the policy), so you can focus on your recovery without any worries during the hospital stay. The time required to process an application is subject to the actual condition. Please submit the pre-approval form at least 7 working days prior to admission for hospitalization in Hong Kong, Macau, Mainland China, or at least 14 working days prior to admission for hospitalization in other countries/regions. China Life (Overseas) reserves the right of final decision.
